There's No Apathy at Forest View

Today's student is no longer apathetic about his education. Dr. L. S. Jenness, principal of Forest View High School, wants to channel this student interest into various situations in the school where the student can use his own judgment.

The self directed activity program, headed by Mrs /- Charlotte Dreischarf, is a program in which the students can choose between using the library, the resource centers, or the study carrels, and relaxing in the cafeteria.

THIS TREND towards stu-dent involvement has led to the formation of a Student Council committee working with Dr. Jenness to seek out additional areas in which the students can make the decisions.

New Moods In 'Night Look'

The look of the '30s is stronger than ever and is reflected in wide-legged pants bare midriffs, loow necklines, ruffles and soft, drapeable fahries such as crepe. The bared, almost-made look has captured today's "night look" in diaphanous sheers, see-though lace and wide-open, exposed decolletages.

INDIVIDUALITY makes the fashion news of today. The need for personal expression and individually in dress has taken hold in private as well as social hours. To appear real, uncomplicated and right at the right time is what today's woman wants.

Elegance, however, is of foremost interest. And fabrics put this elegans air across. Also seems to be a seem of the elegans air across. The elegans air across t

Crepe and crepelike fabrics are the favorite this fall. Particularly pretty is a light and airy nylon crepe which has the look and touch of luxurious wilk. Crepest nylon has your loof is on the fabric never falls flat against the skin. Air circulates freely in and around the jarment, so sleepwar is ocol and confortable.

AFSOP SAYS: The Boar and the Fox

A wild Boar was whatting his tusks against the stump of a trea when a Fox happened by. Thinking to make fun of his neighbor, he made a great show of looking anxiously about, as if in fear of some sudden enemy. But the Boar kept right on with his work.

"Why are you doing that?" asked the Fox at last with a grin. "I see no reason for it: there is neither huntar nor hound in sight nor any other

"True." rapiled the Boar, "But when that danger does arise, I shall have something else to do than to sharpen my weapons.

FOR FRIDAY

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 21)-Take care that others don't construe your reticense for ignorance of the subject at hand. Displey your knowledge sift-confidently. ARIES (March 22-April 20)-Take another's advice as to how to increase your out-put on the employment seene. You can't afford too much in-dependence.
